Environmental legal compliance

GRI Standard/FTSE	Information	Unit	Year 2022	Year 2023	Year 2024
GRI 2-27 (2021)	Number of instances of non-compliance with environmental laws	Times	0	0	0
EPR27	Value of fines for non-compliance with environmental laws	Baht	0	0	0

Fortune Parts Industry PCL (FPI) has demonstrated a strong commitment to environmental responsibility by maintaining a record of zero incidents of non-compliance with environmental laws and regulations. This achievement, as tracked against international sustainability benchmarks like the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) standards, highlights the company's effective environmental management system. For consecutive years, FPI has reported zero violations and consequently, has not incurred any fines or penalties related to environmental issues.

This perfect compliance record reflects a proactive approach to adhering to legal requirements and a corporate culture that prioritizes sustainable manufacturing practices within the automotive parts industry. It signals to investors, customers, and regulators that the company is successfully managing its environmental impact and operational risks.
